

20 Free Ways to Advertise Your Website Online

There are many paid methods to promoting your website, including Pay-Per-Click, Pay-Per-Action, banner ads, Facebook Ads, Google AdSense and Sponsored Tweets, to name a few. But many internet marketers who are just starting out don't have the hundreds, or even thousands, of dollars required to launch a paid marketing campaign. Fortunately, the internet provides a wide variety of no-cost marketing methods that can be just as effective, if not more effective, than paid techniques. In fact, with Google Penguin, the new search engine update released in early 2012, websites that attract traffic through organic methods such as the ones described in this guide will rank higher on Search Engine Results Pages (SERPs) than pages that use some paid methods. Free marketing methods tend to take longer to take hold than paid marketing such as advertising, but the benefit other than the cost savings is that their impact tends to last longer. With paid marketing, once your advertisement expires, there usually is a steep drop-off in traffic. But free marketing methods can continue to funnel visitors to your site for months or even years after they have been put in place. You don't need to spend a fortune to promote your website and get it ranked in the top spot of the SERP for your niche. All you need is persistence, patience and the helpful information provided in this guide to funnel thousands of visitors to your website every day.
