

Alzheimers Society factsheet 467: Financial and legal affairs (Alzheimers Society factsheets)

Financial and legal affairs is a factsheet from Alzheimers Society. After a diagnosis of dementia, there are a number of issues to consider. There are benefits that a person with dementia may be entitled to and assistance available to help people manage their finances. Some people choose to plan ahead for their future, by creating a power of attorney or will. This factsheet is for people living in England and Wales. About the Author Alzheimer's Society is the UK's leading support and research charity for people with dementia, their families and carers. They provide information and support to people with any form of dementia and their carers through their publications, National Dementia Helpline, website, and more than 2,000 local services. They campaign for better quality of life for people with dementia and greater understanding of dementia. They also fund an innovative programme of medical and social research into the cause, cure and prevention of dementia and the care people receive.
