Are they running to your door waiting to throw money at you so they can get their pain eased? Do you even know who your real customers are? Thats when I started making quizzes with survey questions embedded in them. Thats when I started emailing my customers, hopping on the line, and getting some real feedback as to what they needed in their daily duties. And then I wanted to expand. I started helping people in oil & gas, healthcare, fitness & health, personal development, entrepreneurship, internet marketing, teaching, training, and so much more. How the heck was I supposed to know what these people really needed? I asked. Hundreds of thousands of test results later, several thousands in market research and surveys, hundreds of hours in analysis and assessment... all done so I could get a better understanding of the real pains at
