

The Bream of Nonsenseness

The Bream of Nonsenseness is another collection of strange short stories written by John Finti. It contains the following nonsense: 1) Eversort Haverleen - One man. One strange name. One pigeon narrator. 2) A Squirrel Confused - A squirrel is confronted with a twenty-foot bagpipe-playing haddock. 3) Like Any Other - Clouds can only legally move about on a Thursday, which also happens to be the day that all trousers float up into the sky. 4) The Pregnant Pause - The exploited factory workers on an assembly line make the popular product Love for consumers everywhere. 5) The Elephant - A professor finds that his new chair has become a very large elephant. 6) The Glass - Margarine Murgatroyd sits in a bar while the people around her turn into antelopes. Total word count = 6,200 words (approximately) Contains anatomy and weirdness. What more could you want?! Come, my friends, and marvel at The Bream of Nonsenseness!
