

Slavery in the Land of the Free: A Students Guide to Modern Day Slavery

In this follow-up project to The Slave Across the Street geared toward teens and young adults, former trafficking victim and bestselling author Theresa Flores teams up with author PeggySue Wells to deliver a must-read book for the next generation who want to become more educated on human trafficking and learn how they can help end it. The numbers are staggering. With more than 13 million children enslaved through various means, human trafficking is a serious worldwide problem and its a problem in the United States as well. In SLAVERY IN THE LAND OF THE FREE, students will get an indepth look at the truth about human trafficking, both in the United States and abroad. With statistics, stories, and graphics, SLAVERY IN THE LAND OF THE FREE presents students with a clear picture of how trafficking happens, how prevalent it is in our world today, and how they can get involved to bring an end to it.
