

Retrospective Rummage in the Local Districts:: A History of Javi Tehnan Warada (West Gojjam: Ethiopia), 1941 - 1991

The themes expressed herein Beyene's work can create inimitable impressions on the one who is interested to develop historical knowledge and broaden skills of research in upshot reconstructing the past at the district levels. In spite of the fact that examining Various aspects of human past focusing at the narrow scope is a new vogue of historical study, essays in this work hopefully illuminate the socio-economic and political issues what went before. In this regard, it could serve as a springboard for further study of the local history which can contribute to enriching ongoing Ethiopian historiography.
